

Markell on the Passing of Reverend Maurice J. Moyer: “Few in their lives inspire as many.”

Governor Jack Markell today said that the state mourns the passing of Rev Maurice Moyer but celebrates the difference he made in life.

“Few in their lives awaken as many hearts and minds, inspire as many to action or knit as strongly so many social bonds as Reverend Moyer,” Markell said. “I’m honored to have known him.”

Delaware flags will be ordered to fly at half-staff in the city of Wilmington and New Castle County beginning Wednesday morning until further notice.
