

Governor's Weekly Message: Informing Voters and Increasing Government Transparency

New Castle – In his weekly message, the Governor talks about three bills he signed into law this week that give voters greater and more timely information.

“This week, we made significant improvements to Delaware’s campaign finance and lobbying laws,” said the Governor. “At a time when elections are very much on voters’ minds, we are telling them loudly and clearly here in Delaware: you deserve to know more and we are making sure you will...as all of us work together to keep Delaware moving forward.”

At noon every Friday, the Governor’s office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
