

Governor's Weekly Message: Moving Forward by Working Together

GEORGETOWN – In his weekly message, taped at the Marvel Carriage Museum in Georgetown, the Governor talks about the traditions of Return Day.

“It’s the only event of its kind in the nation and it helps define us as a state,” said Governor Markell. “Return Day is about yesteryear traditions but it’s also about today and tomorrow; it’s about what we do when we walk away from the Circle that counts – how we decide to come together collectively as neighbors, continually working together to keep Delawareans and our state moving forward.”

At noon every Friday, the Governor’s office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
