

Statement by Governor Markell Regarding Courthouse Shooting in Wilmington

Governor Jack Markell issued this initial statement in response to today's courthouse shooting in Wilmington:

"Our thoughts and prayers right now are with the victims of this senseless violence and the Capitol Police officers who put their lives on the line to protect the courts and public every day."