

Governor's Weekly Message: Finding Innovative Practices to Employ Individuals with Disabilities

(Seattle, WA) In his weekly message, filmed at the Microsoft headquarters in Seattle, Governor Markell discusses ongoing efforts to find employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

"Our greatest asset in Delaware and across the country is our people and in a highly competitive global economy, we need to take advantage of everyone's abilities," said Governor Markell. "My initiative as Chair of the National Governors Association is not about charity. It's about the strengths of the disabilities community."

Every Friday, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. YouThe message is available on:
