

Governor's Weekly Message: Creating Jobs Through Global Partnerships

Tel Aviv, Israel – In his weekly message, filmed while leading a business development trip in Israel, Governor Markell underscores the importance of strengthening global relationships to create more jobs for Delawareans.

“We live in a different world these days, a world where our future prosperity is largely dependent upon how effectively we connect with businesses and with people around the world,” said Governor Markell. “And so we come to Israel to learn, to make connections. It’s this kind of effort that will ensure we keep Delaware moving forward.”

Every Friday, the Governor’s office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
