

Governor's Weekly Message: Transportation Investments Bring Jobs to Delaware

(Bethany Beach, DE) – In his weekly message, filmed at the South Coastal Library in Bethany Beach, Governor Markell discusses how investments in the state's transportation network will bring thousands of jobs to Delaware.

“One part of the economy hit especially hard by the recession was construction, and we have an opportunity to give workers in that industry a chance to get back on the job,” said Governor Markell. “By investing in improvements to our transportation network, we'll put thousands of people to work, make our roads safer, and keep Delaware moving forward.”

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
