

Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Enforcement Agents Raid Party at Millsboro VFW For Selling Alcohol Without a License

The Division of Alcohol & Tobacco Enforcement received several complaints regarding illegal alcohol sales, underage drinking, and disorderly groups at regularly scheduled events held at the Sussex Memorial VFW Post 7422 in Millsboro. Neither the VFW or the promoter of the special events being held are licensed by the State of Delaware to sell alcoholic beverages. DATE agents conducted surveillance on multiple occasions and were able to secure a purchase of alcoholic beverages from inside. On Saturday, April 12th DATE agents executed a search warrant at Sussex Memorial VFW Post 7422. Agents seized a large amount of alcoholic beverages along with $696 in cash.

DATE agents arrested Ray O. Sned, 48 and Tykena M. Hagans, 24, both of Millsboro, and charged them both with Selling Alcohol Without a License and Illegal Storage of Alcohol. Both were later released.
