

Governor's Weekly Message: Believing in the Abilities of Others

DOVER – In his weekly message, Governor Markell addresses the value in recognizing the unique strengths and abilities of individuals.

“Reaching our potential as a state requires we believe in the abilities of others,” said Governor Markell. “We can all play a role, whether it’s by addressing hiring practices at your company, or serving as a mentor to a disadvantaged young person in your community. By taking the leap of faith to believe that we all have unique strengths and abilities, we’ll keep Delaware moving forward.”

Every week, the Governor’s office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
