

Governor's Weekly Message: Pathways to Prosperity: Preparing Students to Thrive in Growing Industries

DOVER – In his weekly message, Governor Markell highlights Pathways to Prosperity, a statewide program intended to better prepare students for high-demand fields and careers.

“Through our Pathways to Prosperity initiative Delaware employers, universities, and schools will work together to prepare students for a bright future in key industries,” said Governor Markell. “High school students will take hundreds of hours of specialized instruction and hands-on training. They will graduate with industry-recognized certificates and college credits, giving them a head start on getting a job and earning a degree.”

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
