

Final Meeting of the Wilmington Public Safety Strategies Commission

WILMINGTON—The Wilmington Public Safety Strategies Commission will be meeting Tuesday, March 31, 2015 at Bayard Elementary School (200 South DuPont Street 19805). The meeting will start at 5:30PM.

The Commission is tasked with carrying out a rapid, fact-based, intensive examination of public safety strategies in the City and offering recommendations to address Wilmington's significant problem with violent crime. Lewis Schiliro, Secretary of the Department of Safety and Homeland Security, and Joseph Bryant, Jr., Director of Public Safety for New Castle County are the Commission chairs.

This will be the final meeting of the Commission.

Anyone interested in providing public comment should watch the State's public meeting calendar and other notices for any updates to the dates and times of particular meetings. The calendar is available at <https://egov.delaware.gov/pmc/>