

Governor's Weekly Message: Ending Veteran Homelessness in Delaware

Wilmington – In his weekly message, Governor Markell discusses a statewide effort to end homelessness among veterans in Delaware by the end of 2015.

“As we pay tribute to the fallen, we must also recognize that one of the ways we honor their service is through our support for their comrades who return home,” said Governor Markell. “With collaboration between federal, state and local partners and the community, we will reach our goal to end homelessness among veterans in Delaware, taking another step toward ensuring our veterans have every opportunity to live full, healthy lives in our state – and that will keep Delaware moving forward.”

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
