(Dover, DE) – In his weekly message, Governor Markell remembers and honors the life of Beau Biden.

“Beau was a model for determinedly pursuing success, while also demonstrating exceeding humility and grace – a dedicated public servant who had a fierce devotion to family above all else,” said Governor Markell. “While Beau Biden left us far too soon, his accomplishments, his example, and his love leave an everlasting imprint on our state.”

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
