Wilmington, DE – In his weekly message, Governor Markell highlights Delaware's commitment to ensuring all communities in Delaware realize their potential through meaningful work.

"We should strive every day to ensure everyone has access to opportunities to make the most of their abilities. It's a moral imperative, but it's also a fact that we only achieve our potential as a state when we tap into the talents of all of our people," Governor Markell said. "We'll continue to build on those efforts to ensure that all Delawareans have the opportunity to realize their full potential through meaningful work. And that will keep Delaware moving forward."

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
