Wilmington, DE – In his weekly message, Governor Markell discusses Delaware's efforts to support entrepreneurs and grow Delaware's economy by helping them enter new global markets.

"We live in a rapidly changing world with an economy that's been forever altered by global competition and new technology, and these changes have meant new challenges but also tremendous opportunities if we ensure that our people have access to the opportunities. To support our businesses, especially our smaller ones, that means giving them the chance to enter new global markets," Governor Markell said. "By competing in a global economy, we ensure that Delaware's companies have more opportunities to succeed while strengthening our local economy – and that will keep Delaware moving forward."

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
