Wilmington, DE – In his weekly message, Governor Markell pays tribute to our fallen heroes and honors Major Beau Biden.

“I have been honored to observe our National Guard and active duty military members supporting us abroad and at home in times of need,” Governor Markell said. “Memorial Day is over, but we remain forever grateful to each one of our service members for answering the call, recognizing that their selfless service keeps Delaware moving forward.”

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
