Wilmington, DE – In a guest weekly message, Delaware Department of Transportation Secretary Jennifer Cohan updates progress being made throughout all three counties to strengthen Delaware's transportation infrastructure and make travel safer and more efficient as a result of investments supported by the Governor and members of the General Assembly.

"Across our state, thousands of men and women are hard at work building and maintaining a transportation infrastructure that will help drive our economic prosperity for years to come," Sec. Cohan said. "Our work zones are there to protect the safety of our roadway workers, while they improve your ride both today and tomorrow. And that will keep Delaware moving forward."

Every week, the Governor's office releases a new Weekly Message in video, audio, and transcript form. The message is available on:
