

Due Process Layperson Panelist Members Sought

The Governor's Advisory Council for Exceptional Citizens (GACEC) is currently searching for volunteers to fill the position of Layperson Panelist. Under IDEA and Delaware Law, there is an administrative hearing process to resolve disputes related to educational matters. The ideal candidate for this volunteer position will have a demonstrated interest in the education of children with disabilities. Training is provided and if called to serve on a panel, compensation will be given. Please visit our website www.gacec.delaware.gov for the application.
