

National Women's History Month events among 16 special programs at the museums of the State of Delaware during March 2018

(DOVER, Del.—Feb. 22, 2018)—The Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs will be hosting 16 special events during the month of March 2018 at the museums of the State of Delaware. Twelve of these programs will be presented in celebration of National Women's History Month. A full schedule is included below. All programs are free and open to the public.

Jean Norvell will share her childhood experiences growing up during Britain's "darkest hour" in the program, "London in Wartime: Ration Books, Bomb Shelters and the Blitz," that will take place at the New Castle Court House Museum on March 14, 2018.

Designated by joint resolutions of the United States House of Representatives and Senate and proclaimed by the American president, National Women's History Month is an opportunity to honor and celebrate women's lives and historic achievements. Each year National Women's History Month employs a unifying theme and recognizes national honorees whose work and lives testify to that theme. For 2018, the theme is “Nevertheless, She Persisted: Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women.”

Administered by the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, the five museums of the State of Delaware—the John Dickinson Plantation, the Johnson Victrola Museum, the New Castle Court House Museum, The Old State House and the Zwaanendael Museum—tell the story of the First State’s contributions to the history and culture of the United States. Through tours, exhibits, school programs and hands-on activities, the museums shine a spotlight on Delaware’s unique history and the diverse people who came to live there. The museums are accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. The New Castle Court House Museum and the John Dickinson Plantation are partner sites of the First State National Historical Park. The Old State House is located on the Dover Green, another partner site of the park.
