

Governor Carney's Statement on Final Passage of Angel Investor Job Creation and Innovation Act

DOVER, Del. – Governor John Carney on Tuesday issued the following statement on the General Assembly's final passage of the Angel Investor Job Creation and Innovation Act, which will establish a refundable tax credit for qualified investors in Delaware small businesses to spur job creation and innovation:

"We are focused on doing everything we can to support Delaware's innovators and entrepreneurs who are leading Delaware's new economy. I look forward to signing this legislation, which will encourage investments in innovative, Delaware-based small businesses, connect our most talented entrepreneurs with resources they need to be successful, and create new jobs. Thank you to Representative Ramone, Representative Short, Senator McBride, Senator Bushweller and all members of the General Assembly for their support on this important issue."

Governor Carney called for passage of the Angel Investor Job Creation and Innovation Act in his 2018 State of the State Address.

###

Related news:

Governor Carney and Legislators Announce Bill to Spur Investment in Innovative, Delaware-based Small Businesses