

DNREC's First State Heritage Park 'First Saturday in the First State' invites the public to discover a Delaware hero

Students from Caesar Rodney High School will present "Independence or the Bayonet" – The Life and Times of Caesar Rodney" in an historical theater presentation.

DOVER – DNREC's First State Heritage Park, in partnership with Caesar Rodney High School's Stage Crew and Thespians, will present a historical theater production for the First State Heritage Park's monthly "First Saturday in the First State." A variety of other free events and activities will also be featured throughout the day.

One of Delaware's greatest heroes, Caesar Rodney did much more than simply ride to Philadelphia to cast his vote for American independence. Under the glow of candlelight in The Old State House, step back in time to experience the life of the patriot who devoted his life to the service of his beloved Delaware. Caesar Rodney High School students will perform the historical theater piece under the direction of CRHS theater teacher John Muller.

"Independence or the Bayonet – the Life and Times of Caesar Rodney," will be presented at The Old State House at 11 a.m., 1, 3 and 5 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 6. Performances are roughly 45 minutes long. Tickets are free, but space is limited, so reservations are recommended by calling 302-739-9194. This production is a part of a four-play series, presented in rotation each year in October. This successful partnership has been in place for five years, and has provided an exceptional student opportunity.

Other programs during the day on First Saturday will further emphasize the importance of Caesar Rodney to Delaware. Visit Caesar Rodney Headquarters at the John Bell House to learn about the many contributions he made to the First State during his lifetime, or go on a walking tour featuring Dover's other heroes of the revolution.
