

DNREC Q&A on Nov. 25, 2018 ethylene oxide accidental release at Croda's Atlas Point facility

DOVER – Following up on a public meeting held Dec. 20, the  Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control today has made available a Q&A fact sheet on the Nov. 25, 2018 accidental release of ethylene oxide into the air by Croda's manufacturing facility at Atlas Point. DNREC has compiled answers to frequently-asked questions about the incident and provided them on the DNREC website.