

In Memoriam: General Colin L. Powell

As a mark of respect for the passing of General Colin L. Powell and in recognition of his tremendous life of service to this nation, President Biden has ordered that the U.S. flag be immediately flown at half-staff until sunset on October 22, 2021. In concurrence with the President's order, Governor Carney has ordered both the U.S. and Delaware flags at state buildings and facilities to be flown at half-staff.
